TEK is a well-established national recruitment consultancy with an unequalled reputation for its quality of service.

Commented Glyn Chandler, Operation's Director, "We provide recruitment solutions throughout the UK, Europe and Far East. With over 22 years experience we now operate with 52 staff and have an enviable reputation for consistently meeting and exceeding our Clients' demands and expectations.

We are dedicated to giving our Clients and Candidates an added value service and to support the career of the individual. This is confirmed by the frequency that Clients return with new assignments, and our Candidates become Clients of the future."
