

The University of Sheffield

union

IMPRESSIVE HISTORY CONTINUED

Some famous former students: Amy Johnson, Stephen Daldry, Eddie Izzard, Carol Barnes, Joanne Harris, Jack Rosenthal, Linda Smith and Helen Sharman

The university's research partners and clients include Boeing, Rolls Royce, Unilever, Boots, AstraZeneca, GSK, ICI, Slazenger, and many more household names, as well as UK and overseas government agencies and charitable foundations.

Academic partners include leading universities around the world. International partnerships include Worldwide Universities Network (USA, Europe and China) and partnership with Leeds and York Universities (the White Rose Consortium) has combined research power greater than that of either Oxford or Cambridge.

The University's history stretches back to 1828, when the Sheffield School of

The University's history stretches back to 1828

Medicine was founded, and the centre's University Charter was granted in 1905.

The University holds charitable status as an Exempt

Charity. The benefits include tax savings to both the University and to charitable donors or their estates.

Some famous former students at the University of Sheffield include aviation pioneer Amy Johnson, Stephen Daldry, the director of hit movies The Hours and Billy Elliot, comedian and actor Eddie Izzard, broadcaster Carol Barnes, novelist Joanne Harris - the author of international hit Chocolat - playwright Jack Rosenthal, comedy star Linda Smith and Helen Sharman, Britain's first astronaut. ■