Leisure

For something a little more cerebral, though no less entertaining, Sheffield Theatres is the city centre complex that boasts two of the most famous theatres in Britain.

The Lyceum (I), a restored Victorian theatre, is home to some of the country's top touring shows, a fine belnd of West End musicals, drama, opera and both classical and contemporary dance.

The neighboring Crucible (J), is the most famous rep theatre in Britain. Unfortunately, following an eagerly-anticipated revival of classic drama Amadeus this autumn, the theatre closes for an extensive and much-needed 18-month restoration programme.

Sport fans, however, will be delighted to hear that throughout this period, the theatre will be open for the World Snooker Championships!

If you prefer film, Sheffield boasts three multi-screen complexes, the city centre Odeon, the GVue Cinema at Meadowhall and Cineworld at the nearby Valley Centertainment.

There's also a full range of less mainstream fare at the BFI-backed four-screen Showroom Cinema (K), directly opposite Sheffield Station.
